

To Whom it May Concern:

As a parent of four children I ask you not to loosen the requirements for nudity and language on TV. There is already too much that I have to worry about when my children watch. Loosening the requirements will not reduce the number of complaints it will increase them. If people are complaining about what is allowed currently why would you think this would reduce them.

Thank you for your time in reviewing my request.

Sincerely,

Merlin Moyes